

Ghana Partnership Information and Update

Our invitation to two new partners from the Dangme-Tongu Presbytery in Ghana has been accepted and we are excitedly looking forward to their visit. Rev. Samuel Odjelua and Rev. Seth Adzokatse will be visiting us in the Milwaukee Presbytery June 20 to 25, 2019, on their way to attend the Ghana Mission Network Meeting in Erie, PA. We are planning opportunities for them to experience church life in our presbytery, see what our mission ministries are doing locally, nationally and internationally, as well as share stories from congregations within their Presbytery.

We have activities planned for their time within our Presbytery, and also have preaching opportunities at Calvary, in downtown Milwaukee, and Beaver Dam, Grace. If your church is having an activity you'd like our guests to attend or if you would like to plan a meal, let us know. We would welcome any and all of you to join us.

At the end of their stay, the two ministers will take part in the Ghana Mission Network meeting which is being hosted by the Lake Erie Presbytery in Erie, PA. Rachel and Sean Yates, Katherine Dummer (Wauwatosa Presbyterian) Judy Jaggard and Brooke Osborne (Rock Prairie United Presbyterian), are attending the meeting as members of the Milwaukee Presbytery.

A critical component of this visit is to discern whether and how to continue the Partnership between the Milwaukee Presbytery and the Dangme-Tongu Presbytery in Ghana. Many of you have participated in previous years with visits from our Ghanaian friends and some people from your church may have been part of the groups that traveled to Ghana for a visit with our partners.

Thank you for your willingness to help us make this partnership truly a Presbytery wide effort. Should you need any more information, contact judy.jaggard@gmail.com, phone 608-752-5760, or kjdummer@sbcglobal.net, phone 414-232-8419.
