

A message from Rev. Karen Hagen, Pastor, Tippecanoe Presbyterian Church

Well, last week we shared the success of our mission in reaching low income kids in need. We had estimated 40% of our population in the lowest income bracket but it is living more like 60%! Today we created a Go Fun-d Me post on our facebook which I will boost to raise money to support this increased number of the most financially challenged families. See below. Please copy and post yourselves. Revise for donations to go to your link if you prefer. Also, if you go to our facebook, there are pictures there you can include. Our facebook is found as Tippecanoe Church. Also put ASLC on your webpage if you have not. Make an ask of your church family as well!

So grateful to be needing more support!

In peace,
Karen Hagen

Arts and Science Literacy Camp needs your help!

With over 60% of those enrolled at or below poverty level, please consider a donation today.

Arts and Science Literacy camp bridges the summer gap for students, academically and socially, sending well-adjusted pupils back into the school environment ready to learn with focus and confidence. This life altering mission needs your support.
