

JPC Palm Sunday Cantata: The Lenten Sketches

Inspired by the life and message of Jesus Christ, artists in every medium have endeavored to capture the magnificence of His ministry among us. From painters and sculptors, to singers and musicians, the human spirit has long labored to convey the deep artistic expression of faith.

As we gather together on Palm Sunday to reflect and pray, may the musical art of our Chancel Choir be redeemed by divine purpose and may our music be motivated by the spirit of worship. May we offer our simple gifts of sound as a testimony to the faith we long to hone and share. May our hearts display His beautiful Portrait of Grace.

Please join the Jerusalem Presbyterian Chancel Choir on April 9, 2017 as we perform the powerful musical work of Joseph M. Martin entitled "The Lenten Sketches." Our worship service begins at 9:30am. This fantastic work is directed by Nathan Zywicki accompanied by Mary Peterson and Catherine Bush (violinist).
