Call to Worship

Allie McNeely

One: We are Christmas people. Light in the darkness, Christmas people.
Ruler of the universe born as a baby. Inversion of the world on a starry night kind of folks.

All: We are a Christmas people.

One: Expectation amidst sorrow. A strong suspicion that empire, in the face of true divinity, will cry CRUCIFY HIM! CRUCIFY HIM!
But first we must talk about shepherds and wisemen.

All: We will bow down before him. After all, we saw the star.

One: Our story is of a refugee family and no room in the inn and the murder of the innocents, so we string up lights and declare that Jesus steals into every darkness.

All: He does. He does it so that we can see.

One: Christmas is the faint light of transcendence — not the blinding beams of the impending: HE WILL COME AGAIN AND NOW
HE IS RISING INTO HEAVEN.

All: On Christmas, he's a baby, our ember. Glowing.

Invocation and The Lord's Prayer

Allie McNeely

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
