COTTAGE TEAROOM & FARE TO BE FEATURED ON AMERICA’S BEST RESTAURANTS

Northfield, Minnesota — May 27, 2026 — Local eatery Cottage Tearoom & Fare will host a visit from America’s Best Restaurants (ABR), a national media and marketing company, for an on-site visit as part of the ABR Roadshow.\n\nAmerica’s Best Restaurants travels the country spotlighting independent, locally-owned restaurants that make a positive impact on their communities. During the visit, the ABR Roadshow team will highlight Cottage Tearoom & Fare on camera, featuring an extensive interview with Steven Bolduc about the restaurant's special place in the community.\n\nCottage Tearoom & Fare has a unique origin story that began with the owners, Steven and Lisa Bolduc, who previously operated a bed and breakfast in Northfield. They hosted guests and organized four-course high tea events, which garnered local interest. Attending the weekly river market, where local vendors showcased their products, residents encouraged the Bolducs to open a tearoom in town. This feedback inspired them to launch Cottage Tearoom & Fare, which officially opened its doors on August 23, 2022. The tearoom is now the only one in the Northfield area, offering high tea events by reservation and serving as a morning and afternoon walk-in café.\n\nSteven Bolduc is actively engaged with the community, serving on the Northfield Area Fire Rescue Service board and as a board member of the Friends of Downtown association. He proudly states, "Where every sip tells a story," highlighting the tearoom's commitment to creating memorable experiences for its guests.\n\nThe menu at Cottage Tearoom & Fare boasts standout items, and the episode will feature popular dishes such as Quiche Lorraine, Giant Popovers, and Seasonal French Toast Bake. Quiche Lorraine is particularly beloved, serving as the foundation for all quiches offered at the tearoom. The Giant Popovers, known for their challenging preparation, are taken to the next level, while the French toast bake creatively utilizes ingredients from the tearoom's signature popovers.\n\nAmerica’s Best Restaurants will be on-site at Cottage Tearoom & Fare on [Filming Date & Time]. The public and press are welcome to attend.\n\nThe completed episode will be aired extensively on social media channels at a later date. The premiere date will be announced on the restaurant’s Facebook page and featured on America’s Best Restaurants' website and YouTube channel.
