

Michael Boussina Inclusion Program

We Are All Created in The Image of G-d

Scholar-In-Residence Weekend

with

Lisa Friedman

Award-winning Jewish Educator, Disability Inclusion Expert, Coach & Facilitator

Lisa Friedman is a widely recognized expert in Jewish Disability Inclusion. She is an Education Director at Temple Beth-El in Central New Jersey, where she has developed and oversees an inclusive synagogue school. She is also the Project Manager of UJA-Federation of New York's Synagogue Inclusion Project. Lisa consults with congregations, schools, camps, and other organizations to guide them in the development of inclusive practices for staff, clergy, and families through dialogue, interactive workshops, and awareness training. Lisa is a sought-after speaker on a wide variety of topics and blogs about disabilities and inclusion at "Removing The Stumbling Block"

Save the dates

January 17, 2019 through January 20, 2019

KOH Library and Cultural Center

2300 Sierra Boulevard, Sacramento, CA 95825

The Jewish Federation
OF THE SACRAMENTO REGION

In Partnership with the Committee on Inclusion and Disabilities
The Jewish Federation of the Sacramento Region

Open to the community

For more information please contact Taliah Berger, MBIP Executive Director at 916-541-3720 or taliah@mbiprogram.org