

VIRTUAL MENTORING WITH THE REFUGEE RESPONSE

About the Refugee Response

- Founded in 2010 The Refugee Response empowers resettled families to grow roots, supporting them in becoming engaged, self-sufficient and contributing members of their new communities.
- The Home Mentoring Program has been a hallmark of the organization since our founding, supporting children in grades K-8 on the West Side of Cleveland through personalized academic mentorship. Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, TRR is evolving in exciting new ways to best meet client needs, offering a number of new roles.

Virtual Mentoring Opportunity!

This year we will be offering a new opportunity for volunteers to engage as Virtual Mentors. We are currently finalizing program logistics and updating our website - please stay tuned! Full details and volunteer application for this and other roles will be announced mid-September.

Applications will be open
Mid-September.

- Fill out an application.
- Complete a phone interview with a member of TRR Staff.
- Receive approval from staff to move ahead with background check and submit additional documents.
- Complete a series of online trainings to prepare you for your role.

As A Virtual Mentor You Will Be Asked To:

- Provide virtual mentoring and academic support to your assigned mentee.
- Commit to "meeting" virtually for a 40 minute session twice a week on a consistent schedule between 4-6 pm.
- Engage with your mentee over Zoom, utilizing Screen Share, Digital Whiteboards, and with collaborative access to student's academic assignments and learning activities.
- Support student's ability to navigate their school's online portal and monitor their engagement with online assignments and lessons.
- Submit monthly feedback around mentoring activities, student needs, progress, and achievements.
- Refer students to TRR staff if and when students are facing challenges that require more intensive, in-person assistance through our Learning Lab.
