Transport Volunteer Responsibility:

- Birds first!
- Acknowledge the efforts of the finder in seeking help for the bird.
- Provide accurate information. Offer to call back with accurate and complete answers if you are unsure of correct answers.
- Resist challenging those whose viewpoints differ from ours. Retrieving the injured bird is our primary concern.
- Remember that enforcement of the law is the responsibility of the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and the S.C. Department of Natural Resources. Your suspicions or known violations should be appropriately reported to Center staff after the bird is transported. Staff will report to the proper authority.

Please list one employment or volunteer work reference that we may contact.
