

MOAR

Massachusetts Organization for Addiction Recovery

June 2017

Sun

Mon

Tue

Wed

Thu

Fri

Sat

Our mission is to organize recovering individuals, families and friends into a collective voice to educate the public about the value of recovery from alcohol and other addictions.

|                    |                                                                                      |                                                                             |                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                           |    |    |
|--------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|----|
|                    |                                                                                      |                                                                             |                                                                            | 1                                                                                                                                                                         | 2  | 3  |
| 4                  | MOARBoston6:30 PMFaulkner HospitalJamaica Plain               | 6                                                                           | 7                                                                          | MOARSpringfield5:30 PM Phoenix House5 Madison Ave                                                                                                      | 9  | 10 |
| 11                 | 12                                                                                   | MOARMarlborough1:15 PMRecovery Connection31 Main St. | MOARSouth Boston6:00 PMDRC70 Devine Way             | MOARWorcester2:00 PMRockdale Recovery High20 Rockdale St                                                                                           | 16 | 17 |
| 18Father's Day | MOAREast Boston6:30 PMNorth Suffolk Mental Health14 Porter St | 20                                                                          | MOARGreenfield3:30 PMRecovery Project68 Federal St. | MOARMiddlesex East6:00 PMLions Club9 New Washington StSomervilleAndMOARNew Bedford1:15 PMPAACA360 Coggeshall St | 23 | 24 |
| 25                 | 26                                                                                   | MOARNorth Shore6:00 PMLifebridge Salem56 Margin St   | 28                                                                         | 29                                                                                                                                                                        | 30 |    |

www.moar-recovery.org

Call: (617) 423-6627 Email: Maryanne@moar-recovery.org Facebook: @MOARRecovery