A man with short brown hair, wearing a red and black plaid shirt, is seen from the side and back. He is holding an open book and appears to be reading. He has a grey backpack with brown straps on his back. He is standing in a field of tall, dry grass. The background is a soft-focus landscape with green trees and a body of water under a warm, golden light.

“In the case of good books, the point is not to see how many of them you can get through, but rather how many can get through to you.”

— Mortimer J. Adler
