STEP's Mission & Goals:

We educate and empower low-income Arizona high schoolers to enroll in and graduate from college.

We help students to:

- Become the strongest possible college applicants they can be
- Secure the best possible financial aid (up to 100% of the cost, no loans)
- Prepare for and apply to top colleges and universities in state and nationwide
- Discover and believe in their abilities and potential.

STEP's College-Prep & Leadership Program:

Students apply to and enter STEP in their sophomore year of high school and participate in college-prep workshops throughout their sophomore, junior, and senior year. Workshops are designed to guide students through the process of preparing for and applying to college, with an emphasis on what it takes to become a competitive college applicant at selective 4-year colleges and universities nationwide. In their junior year, students are considered for participation in STEP's 3-Week Wilderness Leadership Expedition to Alaska with the National Outdoor Leadership School (NOLS). We focus on introducing students to top colleges around the country where they will receive individualized attention and excellent financial aid packages. We guide students in what they need to do now in high school to prepare for the academic rigors of these schools.

96% of STEP's College-Prep Program graduates are in college or have obtained a college degree.

STEP students are enrolled in all three Arizona state universities as well as top-ranked schools nationwide, including Stanford University, Harvard University, Yale University, Princeton University, Columbia University, MIT, University of Chicago, Duke University, Brown University, Johns Hopkins University, Colgate University, Northwestern University, Georgetown University, University of Notre Dame, University of Pennsylvania, University of Southern California, Bowdoin College, Smith College, Pomona College, and Williams College to name a few.
