Charting the LifeCourse
GOOD LIFE GROUP

The first Wednesday of November - June, 2024
12:00p.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Zoom

All people have the right to live, love, work, play and pursue their own life aspirations.

You are invited to participate in an opportunity to support and learn from one another while exploring, planning and problem solving!

This group was created to help individuals and families of all abilities and all ages develop a vision for a good life, think about what they need to know and do, identify how to find or develop supports, and discover what it takes to live the lives they want to live.

Initial meetings will review the needs of the group and determine if it will be most useful to spend time focusing on a specific topic, a certain life stage or general brainstorming.

You are already doing a lot of work to plan and find solutions for you and your family. Why not join up with other like-mind families to perhaps discover some new ideas and methods for planning!

The group will be facilitated by Donna Kushi, Pathlight's Charting the LifeCourse Ambassador. Please email Donna at donna.kushi@pathlightgroup.org if you have any questions. Registration is required.

Register with Donna at Donna.Kushi@pathlightgroup.org to register for the event and receive the Zoom meeting link.
