

De-escalating Behaviors for Caregivers with Brennan Roy

When

Thursday, July 16, 2026

Time

5:30 - 7:00 PM

Format

In-person at:

Family Empowerment
Boardroom
101 Munson Street
Greenfield, MA

Invited participants

All caregivers and other professionals
working with disabled
individuals that struggle with dysregulation and challenging behaviors.

Questions

Angie at [ahawk@
servicenet.org](mailto:ahawk@servicenet.org)

This webinar will focus on de-escalating behaviors and preventing crises. Topics will include:

- De-escalation goals
- Pre-de-escalation strategies
- Keys to effective de-escalation
- De-escalation techniques
- De-escalation pitfalls to avoid
- How to de-escalate as a team
- De-escalation safety

This is a training for caregivers. It is not a training for individuals with disabilities.

Brennan Roy is the founder of Crisis Intervention Solutions (2013) in East Longmeadow, MA. He has more than 20 years of experience working primarily with school staff responsible for safety, behavior support, and crisis response.

This webinar will not be recorded, but slides will be shared to registrants after the meeting..

REGISTER