Celebrate Creation with Payton Hoegh, Program Director of the Center for Spirituality in Nature
Co-sponsored by the Church of St. Martin, Davis and the Commission on the Environment, Diocese of Northern California

On Monday, May 26, from 10am to noon, Payton Hoegh will introduce the concept and practice of spirituality in nature through worship, mindfulness, discussion, and wandering. The gathering will take place at the Forbes Ranch in Esparto, a 68-acre almond farm and gathering space where St. Martin's has been practicing land-based ministry for the last several years. Payton is a leading voice in the Episcopal Church on creation care issues and is passionate about community weaving, ecology, environmentalism, agriculture, justice, and equity. He is also a certified California naturalist. To learn more about the Center and Payton, go to https://www.centerforspiritualityinnature.org.

Payton will also preach at St. Martin's on Sunday, May 25, at both the 8am and 10am services. After the 10am service, Payton will be available to chat and answer questions. St. Martin's is also marking Rogation Sunday that day with a Bike Blessing after church.

Forbes Ranch is located at 19100A Road 86A, Esparto. RSVPs for the May 26 event are appreciated but not required. To respond or for more information, contact the Rev. Dr. Pamela Dolan at pamela@churchofstmartin.org or through the church office (530-756-0444).
