ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Position description: Child, youth, and family minister

Reports to: Rector

Employment Classification: Regular, Non-exempt, At-will, Part-time (5 hours/week)

Compensation: $25.75/hour

Summary: Plans and provides ministry specially geared toward children, youth, and families at St. John's

Qualifications:

- Good people skills for interactions with a diverse population of church staff and members, facility users, visitors, and others.
- Especially fluent in interactions with children, youth, and their parents.
- Good working knowledge of the Bible and other resources for ministry with children and youth, or willingness to learn
- Skilled in planning events, education, and worship geared toward children, youth, and families
- Practices a Christian faith that is inclusive and embracing of all people, especially those historically or currently marginalized

Duties:

- Provides Sunday school instruction and supervision each week (together with a rotating volunteer assistant) during worship, usually bringing children back into the Sanctuary for Communion.
- Works together with the Vestry liaison for children, youth, and family ministry to develop and deliver Sunday school curriculum, currently drawn from Holy Moly.
- Works together with the Rector, Vestry liaison, and assisting Priest to plan, develop, and deliver a regular monthly gathering (ideally one Sunday evening each month) for worship, education, and fellowship geared toward children, youth, and families.
- Seeks to build a youth group, possibly shared ecumenically with other churches, that meets at least monthly.
- Communicates directly with youth and families to keep them up to speed on relevant goings-on and foster a strong connection with St. John's.
