

Stations of the Cross Art Residency and shared “Studio Time”

Dean Matthew Woodward is inviting you to join a community of art practice during the season of Lent at Trinity Cathedral.

We are working on creating a set of original Stations of the Cross for Good Friday. Dean Matthew will be inviting different artists in the community to create pieces for this project. Each Thursday night during Lent we are going to get together to talk about the form of Stations of the Cross and artistic responses to them.

So on each Thursday night during Lent (2/23, 3/2, 3/9, 3/16, 3/23, 3/30) you are invited to join us in the Cathedral at 6pm to participate in stations of the cross meditations, then head to the Assembly Area to share a brown bag supper, and from 7 to 8pm participate in “studio time” with Dean Matthew.

You may come whether you are creating a piece of art or not. You may bring your own art materials and work with them as we talk, you may just come along and join in the conversation.

By the end of Lent we hope to have 14 pieces to display in the Cathedral.

Stations of the cross at 6pm will be in person only, but studio time at 7pm will be Hybrid, please join us from your home studio! This program is open to the whole diocese.
