Shabbos Delicacies

by the LINK Shabbos Group Children

Even if a person doesn't have much time to learn, it's important to learn a little bit or to find some way to serve Hashem with true sincerity at some point during a person's day. I heard this nice idea in school this week. Chazal learn from a pasuk in Yisro that if you serve Hashem in a sincere way for even part of the day it's actually looked at as if you learned Torah the whole day.

Have a good Shabbos,
Avi Modlinger

KIDS CORNER

DEAR COMMUNITY MEMBERS,

Hope you are all doing well! BH our children's groups are in full swing! We have lots of new outdoor toys that the children are enjoying.

I wanted to take this opportunity to welcome Morah Sigal Bochor to our staff, Morah Sigal will be taking care of our younger groups to help ensure that the group runs smoothly. We are so happy to have her on our team.

INTRODUCING "SHABBOS DELICACIES "

Beezras Hashem each week we will have one of our very own LINK SHABBOS GROUP children write a Dvar Torah or inspirational story that they want to share. This is a very exciting new initiative and I hope to empower our children to express themselves in a beautiful way.

This weeks SHABBOS DELICACIES is written by a very chashuva boy Avi Modlinger who is 5th grade at Ohr Eliyahu.

WAY TO GO AVI!

As always, I would love to hear feedback.

Good Shabbos
Dina Ram
