

Jones Lang LaSalle presents
VetNet-Working Charlotte

---

JLL's VetNet connects JLL with Veteran community in order to better understand the unique skills they offer. We do this by creating an environment that attracts and develops our Vets now and in the future.

---

Jones Lang LaSalle and our connections from the local business community invite you to a one-of-a-kind training and networking event for local Military Servicemembers and Veterans – JLL's VetNet-Working. We'll be training on military transition topics, discussing the industries we work in, entrepreneurship and building connections for us all to leverage.

When: Thursday, June 20th, 4-7 PM

Where: The Garage at Packard Place
222 South Church Street
Charlotte, NC 28202

Dress: Business Casual

VetNet-working Charlotte is designed to connect business leaders from the Triangle and experienced, technology-savvy Military Veterans and transitioning servicemembers seeking networking connections and career insight.

Agenda: Keynote Speaker

Duke Energy and other JLL Partner Companies

USO North Carolina

Veterans Bridge Home

Strategic Networking

90 seats available to Vets or transitioning military from any branch. R.S.V.P. to dan.eddinger@am.jll.com.

JLL is a global leader in real estate services with an entrepreneurial spirit and relationships in almost every business sector. We are proud to sponsor some of the most progressive Employee Resource Groups in the industry are doubly proud to count VetNet among them.