

Veterans bring a unique and valuable set of skills and experiences. The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) strongly encourages veterans to continue to serve your country with us. Explore the diverse career paths within the FBI and discover how to continue serving with a career like no other. To further explore our many career paths, please visit our Career Paths section.

Veterans who apply are also eligible for Veterans' Preference. To learn more about Veterans' Preference, click here.

More information on benefits for veterans and servicemen and women is available on our Benefits page, as well as on FedsHireVets.gov.

The FBI also has a specific program for Wounded Warriors, also known as Operation War Fighter. Check below for more information.
<https://www.fbijobs.gov/veterans>

You could work for the FBI.
Your experience fits.

The FBI is an Equal Opportunity Employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment. Except where otherwise provided by law, selection will be made without regard to, and there will be no discrimination because of color, race, religion, national origin, political affiliation, marital status, parental status, physical or mental disability, age, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), genetic information, membership or non-membership in an employee organization, or on the basis of personal favoritism, or other non-merit factors.