

Nicholas M. Auletta, CPP

President

Nicholas M. Auletta is the President of TruView BSI, LLC, a leader in background screening and investigative services with national and international service capabilities. His successful business experience includes over 10 years in strategic leadership positions, providing critical investigative and security services to government agencies and private concerns.

Nick is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point and a former Captain in the United States Army. He served as an Active Duty U.S. Army Infantry Officer and earned Airborne, Ranger, and Combat Infantryman qualifications, with three tours and 44 months of deployed time to the Iraq combat zone. Nick's military awards include two Bronze Star Medals and the Meritorious Service Medal. Since entering the private sector, Nick has earned the coveted Certified Protection Professional (CPP) designation and a Postgraduate Certificate in Management for Security Executives from the University of Pennsylvania at Wharton. In 2014, Nick was appointed to serve on Governor Cuomo's New York State Security Guard Advisory Panel.

Nick is an advocate for military veterans' issues and holds lifetime memberships with several military associations. He serves on the Board of Directors for the United Way of Long Island and leads their military and veteran family initiative, Mission United.
