PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God, our Parent, your love is all-encompassing and unconditional. You surround us with those who care for us. Still, we turn away from love and go it alone. We are grateful that your arms remain open to us, that you even chase after us with your love. Even more, you shine your light upon us. Your brightness shines in and through others. Still, we avert our eyes and dwell in darkness. We are thankful that your light shines for all eternity. Holy One, in your mercy forgive us our stubborn aversion. Set us free from what separates us from you, and return us to the joy of communion with you. Amen.
