

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Cohen Miles-Rath

Author of the forthcoming memoir Mending Reality, Cohen Miles-Rath champions mental health policy, education, and workforce funding. He has led over 50 trainings, including Mental Health First Aid, and spoken alongside leaders such as U.S. Health Secretary Xavier Becerra. His work has been featured by NAMI and at the New York State Capitol. He holds degrees from SUNY Geneseo and Stony Brook University, with a focus on policy and community action.

Join over 300 representatives from family peer support providers, family members, youth and professionals from the children's behavioral health and other cross-system children's services at this statewide event and stay abreast of the many challenges and opportunities facing children, youth and families as health and behavioral health services continues to move toward an integrated system of care.

Workshop tracks include:

- Family & Youth
- Family & Youth Advocate
- Workforce
- Youth

 Learn More

qrco.de/2025FTAC

