

Nomination Form for the Canterwood Homeowners Association

The Board of Directors position(s) will be filled for a three-year term on the Canterwood Homeowners Board. The Board meets monthly to set policy and oversee the affairs of the Homeowners Association. Additionally, various committee meetings are held throughout the year. Those wishing to submit their name in nomination should carefully consider their relevant experience as well as the time commitment to serve.

This Nomination Form must be received by the Homeowners office by October 7, 2019 in order to be included with the mailing of the Annual Meeting notice in early November. The questions below, together with the biographical sketch are optional, but are designed to help homeowners review the candidates in a common format before casting their ballot.
