

Pledge to the Earth

I promise to be good to the earth and to all life on our planet, to all growing things, to all kinds of animals, and to respect all cultures of all people on planet Earth.

I promise to protect all life on our planet, to live in harmony with nature, and to share everything fairly, so that all people can live with one another in good health and in peace on planet Earth.