What you should know:

- What should be in your set of guidelines?
- What should not?
- One size does not fit all.
- Guidelines can be changed or temporarily overridden.
- Intended to help serve—not turn people away.
- Who makes the final decision?

Three Opportunities

Wednesday, July 8, 2026

Thursday, July 16, 2026

Monday, July 20, 2026

All sessions are identical.

Webinar Sessions

Begin: 6:30 pm End: 7:40 pm

Who should attend?

- All Members: All members should attend because all members share in the development of and approval of their Conference's Guidelines.

This is a virtual interactive presentation rather than an in-person training and requires your attendance through the use of a computer, ipad, or like device. To participate, you cannot attend simply by phone because you must see the presentation as well as hear it.

Additional Information will be sent when you register:

To Register, contact: Mike Syslo,

All Conferences should have a written set of guidelines which help the members make decisions about how to help those in need who ask for help.

Guidelines help resolve disagreements about how or how much aid should be given.

Written guidelines help to train new members joining the Conference. This gives new members more confidence in their ability to help.

Guidelines are a tool.
