Shimmy Shack Vegan Gluten Free Business Is For Sale!

Shimmy Shack owner Debra Levantrosser (THE Shimmy Mama) had wanted to bring vegan comfort food to the masses ever since she became vegan 32 years ago. She started Shimmy Shack food truck TEN YEARS ago and is ready to move on to her next venture in animal activism so she is selling Shimmy Shack (truck, recipes and brand) and wants the next owner to level it up!

Shimmy Shack has sold over 60,000 of its original recipe veggie burgers and was voted in the top 10 food trucks in the country in 2015, 2017, 2019 and 2021. Think of the environmental and animal welfare impact of that many veggie burgers! A regular on Fox 2 Detroit, Shimmy Shack has been enthusiastically spreading the vegan gluten free love to all within reach.

If you are trying to figure out how to put your love for veganism into action or wanting to own a thriving, established, TURN-KEY business, Shimmy Shack could be your Shimmy Soulmate! Shimmy Shack food truck has been rolling through the streets of metro Detroit for TEN YEARS and was named one of the Top 10 Food Trucks in the COUNTRY in 2019 and top 5 in Michigan in 2021. Shimmy Shack products can be found in 15 stores throughout Michigan and in the Midwest. The perfect new owner loves veganism, appreciates gluten-free products and is ready to jump into an expanding business whose growth potential is as big as the moon. The sale includes the brand, the recipes, the truck, a customer database of ten years and all wholesale business.

One thing is CERTAIN: plant based eating and gluten free eating are movements carrying us into a future that's better for our health and our environment. This is an opportunity to become part of that movement all while putting your entrepreneurial and creative skills to work. Are you ready to shimmy into a new role as the leader of Shimmy Shack? Fire up that engine (and the grill) because this is your shimmylicious chance!
