

Dr. Claudia Pisanu received her degree in Medicine and a Specialty in Medical Pharmacology at the University of Cagliari, Italy. She trained in molecular research and bioinformatics in Italy (University of Cagliari), Sweden (Uppsala University) and USA (National Institute of Mental Health). Dr. Pisanu has published more than 50 papers in peer reviewed journals. Her research interests include pharmacogenetics of psychotropic medications and analytical approaches for the integration of clinical and molecular data.