

19TH ANNUAL NADD STATE OF OHIO MI/ID CONFERENCE

JULY 12-14, 2021 | VIRTUAL

CALL FOR PRESENTATION CHECKLIST

Before completing the submission, please compile the required information noted in this checklist. Incomplete proposals will not be reviewed for acceptance.

All presentations should focus on topics addressing the health, wellness and support of people with mental health needs and intellectual/developmental disabilities, or the people and professional systems that serve them.

Presentations will be 90-minute REAL TIME VIRTUAL SESSIONS with a primary focus on sharing information in a focused topic area, and including a question and answer session.

Please keep in mind that presenters must remain unbiased at all times. You may reflect on personal experience as it pertains to your topic and material, but we expect that you will refrain from expressing any personal/political views.

Example Topics include:

- Systems Collaboration
- Policy Initiatives
- Counseling & Therapy
- Family Issues
- Diagnosis & Assessment
- MI/ID Services for those who are Nonverbal
- Direct Support Professional Training (Behavior Support, MI/ID Basics, etc.)
- Research
- Program Models
- Ethics
- Supporting Youth with MI/ID
- MI/ID & The Criminal Justice System
- Crisis Response
- Traumatic Brain Injury
- Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Anxiety & MI/ID
- Syndromes
- Substance Abuse & MI/ID
- Technology Innovations
- Gender Identity & Sexuality
- MI/ID & Cultural and Linguistic Diversity
- Trauma

 - Wired connection to internet
 - Camera (via computer or external device)
 - Microphone (via computer or external device)
 - Presentation environment and background: ensure your presentation environment is free of unwanted clutter or external distractions that could interfere with your presentation or audience viewing.

With a virtual presentation it is imperative to plan ahead for potential technical issues. We recommend running through your presentation several times prior to presenting, and developing a plan to address technical issues if they arise. We will be doing a run through of presentations and provide IT support in preparation for the conference, with further details to follow.
