

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Partridge Snow & Hahn Welcomes Daniel E. Burgoyne in Providence

PROVIDENCE, August 27, 2020 – Partridge Snow & Hahn (PS&H) is pleased to announce that Daniel E. Burgoyne has joined the firm as Counsel, residing in the firm's Providence office.

Dan joins the firm's Litigation Practice Group where he will continue to focus his practice on commercial litigation and insolvency matters. He has extensive experience representing banks and other lenders with troubled loan relationships, including bankruptcy and receivership proceedings, actions seeking affirmative recovery, defense of claims against lenders, and matters affecting lenders' collateral. Dan's experience adds value to several practice areas at the firm including Commercial Finance, Commercial Restructuring, Workouts & Asset Recovery, and Insurance.

"Dan is an outstanding attorney whose experience in insolvency, bankruptcy, and workout is a great addition to our firm in these areas of critical importance to our clients," said PS&H Managing Partner Howard Merten. "He will help PS&H better serve our clients at a time of economic challenges with his knowledge, experience and level-headed and practical approach to solving problems."

Dan is dedicated to community and professional service. Since 2009, he has served in several volunteer positions with the Narragansett Council, Boy Scouts of America, and currently sits on its board of directors. Dan is also an avid runner. He participated twice in the Dana Farber Marathon Challenge, finishing the 2015 and 2016 Boston Marathons while helping to raise over $20,000 for cancer research.

Before joining PS&H, Dan was a shareholder at Roberts, Carroll, Feldstein & Peirce and law clerk to The Honorable Michael J. Silverstein of the Rhode Island Superior Court.

Dan received his B.A. from Providence College, magna cum laude, and earned his J.D. from Boston College Law School.

Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP, a business law and litigation firm with offices in Providence, Boston, and New Bedford, MA, is dedicated to providing excellence in legal services and business planning to its local and regional clients in a responsive, efficient and cost-effective manner. For more information, visit psh.com.