

Ms. Valarie R. Van Vlack
Assistant Vice President and Treasurer
Texas State University

Bio:

Ms. Van Vlack received her Master of Business Administration degree from Syracuse University in 2006, and her Bachelor of Science degree in management, with an option in finance from SUNY Geneseo in 1988. She is a Certified Treasury Professional (CTP) and has been a member of the Association of Financial Professionals (AFP) since 1991. She is a NACUBO (National Association of College and University Business Officers) Fellow (2019-2020), board member for SACUBO (Southern Association of Colleges and University Business Officers), and board member for the Treasury Institute for Higher Education. She is on the board of TexPool Investment Advisory Board as well as some other advisory councils.

Prior to her position as Treasurer at Texas State in 2007, Ms. Van Vlack spent 13 years as the Director, Cash Management at Syracuse University. She began her career at Agway, Inc., a farmer's cooperative which was headquartered in Syracuse, NY, where she held various titles in the finance area.

Assistant Vice President and Treasurer Responsibilities:

The Treasurer directs and administers treasury operations and investments including endowment funds, banking, cash management for the University. The Treasurer oversees the Student Business Services office, which directs the operations of the cashiering and collection function for the University in accordance with federal and state regulations and University policies. Student Business Services responsibilities include deposit of all University income, assessment and collection of student tuition and fees, collection of emergency tuition loans, short-term loans, NSF checks, and various receivables.

Information about Texas State University:

Texas State University is an emerging research university located at the edge of the Texas Hill country located in San Marcos Texas, halfway between Austin and San Antonio. Authorized by the Texas Legislature in 1899, the University started out as Southwest Texas State Normal School in 1903 and has broadened in scope and name. Texas State has over 39,000 students which offers more than 200 bachelors, master's, and doctoral degree programs. Texas State is part of the Texas State University system.