SUBMISSION AND DELIVERY OF ORIGINAL WORK:

1. All work must be finished and completely dried. Please do NOT use hot glue guns to adhere elements to the mannequin; hot glue is not sufficient to durably secure elements. Any work found to have elements dislodged will be removed from the exhibition.
2. The hangers provided on the mannequin must be used or an exception must be granted by the show's curator prior to delivery.
3. All work must be ready to hang and must be manageable by one person. Weight limit: 30 lbs.
4. Hand-deliver finished artwork and label to the Elliott Museum, 825 Northeast Ocean Blvd, Stuart, on Saturday, December 7th between 10 am - 1 pm.
5. Submission does not guarantee that all work will be accepted to show. Work not selected to show must be picked up on Sunday, December 8th between 10 am - 12 pm. Artists will be notified.

SELECTION AND AWARDS:

1. The Selection Committee comprised of professional Museum staff and the Show Curator will choose the work to show after the deliveries have been made.
2. Notification of selection will be emailed to all entrants the Committee has concluded selection the evening of Saturday, December 7th, and posted on the FPAC and Elliott Museum websites.
3. Non-monetary Awards will be given at the jurors' discretion for First, Second, and Third place and three Honorable Mentions. The decisions of the jurors is final.
4. Awards will be given and announced during the Reception and posted on the FPAC and Museum websites.

SALES:

1. The Elliott Museum will handle all sales, collect and pay sales tax, and absorb credit card fees, and retain a commission of 40% of any and all sales.
