By signing your name below you agree to abide by the expected behavioral and dress code guidelines as set by the Mount Paran Christian School administration. You also agree to comply with any verbal directive any MPCS staff or administration may ask of you.

- Dresses should be the appropriate length, the hem reaching no more than app. three inches from the top of the knee cap. If a dress is deemed too short, there is possibility that individual will not be admitted to the dance.
- Strapless dresses are permitted. However, dresses should not have cut-outs at the waist, mid-section, or the back.
- Backless dresses are not appropriate. There should be no skin showing below the bottom of the shoulder-blades. If the dress laces up the back, a panel of fabric should cover the area of the back below the shoulder-blades.
- Dresses should not be low-cut or revealing. If a dress dips low or has a low-cut "V" shape in the front, a panel of fabric should cover this area. Plunging or low necklines are not permitted.
- If the dress is sheer or see-through, an underskirt must be worn that is appropriately sized in length (not too short).
- All non-MPCS guests must also abide by the dress code policy.
- Students arriving to the dance in non-compliant dress code attire may not be permitted to enter.
- Students are expected to remain in compliance with the dress code and behavior expectations throughout the course of the event.

Failure to comply with these guidelines or expectations could result in your parent being contacted and/or you being asked to immediately leave the dance.
