

Microsoft is committed to improving your Microsoft 365 subscription. We regularly review how our subscribers use features within Microsoft products. This email includes details regarding features going away next year and reminders about current benefits included with your subscription.

- Beginning March 03, 2026, you will no longer have access to 60 minutes of monthly Skype calls to mobile phones and landlines. Learn more in these Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQ\).
- Beginning October 01, 2026, Microsoft Publisher will no longer be supported as part of Microsoft 365. Many common Publisher scenarios are available in other Microsoft 365 apps, including Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, and Designer.

Action Recommended: Before October 01, 2026, convert your existing Publisher files to PDF or Word format. After this date, you will no longer be able to open or edit these files with Microsoft Publisher.

Learn more about plans for Microsoft Publisher.

Thank you for being a Microsoft 365 subscriber. With your Microsoft 365 subscription, you will continue to access expansive cloud storage, advanced security for your data and devices, powerful productivity apps, creativity tools, and ongoing customer support.

If you do not wish to continue your Microsoft 365 subscription, you can cancel it by logging into your Microsoft account and turning off recurring billing. If you purchased a Microsoft 365 subscription from Google Play or the Apple app store, contact their customer support for cancellation.

If you have additional questions, please contact our support team.

You are receiving this message because you have a Microsoft 365 subscription.

Privacy Statement

Microsoft Corporation, One Microsoft Way, Redmond, WA 98052