

Jennie Award 2020

Who is Jennie June? She was the founder of the General Federation of Women's Club, GFWC. Jane Cunningham Croly was her actual name. She wrote for a national Newspaper under the name "Jennie June". The GFWC Jennie Award honors one clubwoman from each Region for Outstanding

Commitment to Club, Community and Family. This GFWC Jennie Award is the only National Honor that recognizes an individual club woman.

California has two honorees of this Award. Dori Kelsey in 2006 from the Women's Improvement Club of Roseville, Sutter District and Pat Irot in 2018 from Placentia Round Table, Orange District. This is a lifetime Award.

Club presidents, I ask you to share this information with your membership officer. Form a committee to promote this award, chose a member and send in an have application. You can send in more than one.

California Federation of Women's Club will have a committee to review all applications that are received. Applications are due anytime until the deadline of May 1st.

I hope to spotlight a nominee as applications come in on Quick Bytes. All Jennie Award Nominees will be recognized at our Annual Convention.

I look forward to receiving many applications. All applications are to be sent to me:

Sandra Cabral
10769 Parkdale Avenue
San Diego, Ca. 92126

Any questions, can call me at (858) 342-4073 or email to me at cabralsd@hotmail.com

Stay safe and Healthy

Sandra Cabral
Jennie June Contest Chairmen