MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH | RESOURCES NEAR YOU

May marks Mental Health Awareness Month, a vital time to dismantle the stigma surrounding mental well-being, right here in West Louisville. It's time to cast aside any shame or disparagement associated with seeking support from a mental health professional. This year, let's courageously engage in mental health sessions, classes, groups, or forums, whether individually or with our families. Establishing true wealth begins with a healthy mindset, and prioritizing our mental health is a powerful step towards building a stronger, more resilient future for ourselves and our community.

Let this be the year we invest in our minds, fostering a culture of openness and support in West Louisville. Listed below are a few of the professionals residing right in our neighborhood.
