REGISTRATION AND PARTICIPATION

Where do I get my badge?

Badges will be printed onsite. Please visit the registration desk upon arrival to check in and collect your badge. You will need your badge to access all sessions, meals, and conference events.

Is there a dress code for the Symposium?

Conference attire is business casual. We recommend packing layers and a light coat because Columbus weather in April can be unpredictable. Comfortable attire is recommended for several sessions. See the event schedule for more information.

What is included with my registration?

Your registration includes access to all educational sessions, conference meals, social events, and eligibility to earn continuing medical education (CME) credits

May I bring a guest?

Guest passes are available for $175 and can be purchased in advance or onsite. This pass includes access to conference meals and social events but does not include continuing education credit.

What items are not allowed at the Symposium?

Pets are not permitted. Please avoid bringing any items that may disrupt sessions or crowd common areas.

Is Wi-Fi access available at the venue?

Yes, complimentary wi-fi is available.

CONFERENCE PROGRAM AND CME

Where can I find the program and full schedule?

The full event schedule is available online at www.oos2025.org.

Is CME credit available?

The Ohio Osteopathic Foundation (OOF) is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association to provide osteopathic continuing medical education for physicians.

The OOF designates this activity for a maximum of 22.50 AOA Category 1-A credits and will report CME and specialty credits commensurate with the extent of the physician's participation in this activity.

This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. The American Osteopathic Association designates this blended activity for a maximum of 20.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™.

When will I receive CME credit?

Participants will receive a CME certificate verifying your credits via email within four weeks after the conclusion of the Symposium.

How can I claim CME credits?

To receive your CME credit, please complete the following forms by May 12, 2025. Please note that the attestation form is the reporting document used to submit CME. Credit will only be given to physicians who complete their CME Attestation Form. Participants who complete the forms after May 12, 2025 will be provided a certificate to report their CME directly to the AOA.

Where do I direct questions about CME?

Please contact the Ohio Osteopathic Association's Office of CME at cmeconsultant@ohiodo.org, or see the CME staff onsite at the Symposium for assistance.

ENGAGEMENT AND ACTIVITIES
