

Leroys "She-Crab" Bisque

3 tablespoons butter

Small bunch of chives (or 1 Tsp. dried chives)

1 stalk celery, diced

2 tablespoons all-purpose flour

2 cups fish stock (clam broth, clam juice, vegetable broth or even chicken stock)

4 Cups Half-n-Half

1 pound lump or jumbo lump crabmeat, flaked

1/4 cup sherry

1 1/2 teaspoons sea salt (depending on salt in the "stock")

1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper

2 cups hard-cooked eggs

1/2 teaspoon sweet Spanish paprika

Directions

1. Place eggs in a 2 quart saucepan and cover with water. Bring water to a boil. Remove from heat, cover and let stand for 10-12 minutes. Remove eggs from hot water and cool.
2. Press the yolks of hard-boiled eggs through a sieve or strainer and set aside (use a spoon to press-it's easier. You'll have a pile of granular egg yolk. This is the key as it replaces the crab roe that would be used.
3. In a large pot, melt the butter over medium low heat. Add the chives and celery; cook, stirring occasionally, until the vegetables are soft, about 4 minutes.
4. Add the flour and cook/stir for 2 minutes. Stir in the stock and Half-n-Half. Bring to a simmer.
5. Add cooked egg yolks, crabmeat, sherry, salt and pepper and heat through. Ladle into bowls and garnish each serving with a pinch of paprika, some chives and the sliced egg whites-if desired.
