February 2025

To the Participants of the Catholic Men's Conference:

I am delighted to welcome you to the 2025 Annual Catholic Men's Conference. I pray that this day will be one filled with grace that fosters spiritual growth of everyone participating in this event and strengthens men to be leaders of faith in their families and in the public square. I regret that I cannot be with you today as I have accompanied permanent deacons of the Diocese to Rome for the Jubilee for Deacons.

During this Jubilee Year, we remember that we are all "Pilgrims of Hope," journeying together on the road to heaven. Many people journey across the country last July to Indianapolis for the National Eucharistic Congress, which launched year three of the Eucharistic Revival – the Year of Mission.

We are Men on a Mission, committed to walking with others along that road which leads to a personal encounter with Jesus, especially in the Eucharist, the Source and Summit of all life in the Church. Each of us has a different journey, but we are all disciples, who heed the Master's voice to follow Him. To be called is to be sent. Thus, we are not merely disciples but missionary disciples, called to bring others into a deeper relationship with Christ and to humbly serve our brothers and sisters.

Today's conference offers you the opportunity to be renewed in your faith, your zeal, and your own sense of mission. The speakers will inspire you, entertain you, and convict you to live your faith in a more impactful way. The priests, confessors, the CMM leadership team, and the men of St. Brigid of Kildare who are the hosts for the conference, will accompany you on your journey, which culminates in the encounter with the Lord at Mass.

Nourished by Word and Sacrament, we are more fit to carry out our mission of proclaiming the joy of the Gospel and living our vocations in our families and workplaces. It is my sincere hope that all those gathered for the 2025 Catholic Men's Conference will enter more deeply into the Mystery of Christ and carry out their mission successfully.

Assuring you of my blessing and prayerful best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Earl K. Fernandes

WELCOME!

A LETTER FROM OUR CONFERENCE DIRECTOR

Men,
Welcome to the 28th Annual Catholic Men's Conference. Once again, I am honored and humbled to be the 2025 Director of this powerful and inspirational event. In this final year of the Eucharistic Revival, entitled the Eucharistic Mission, we are reminded as men of Christ to go out on mission to the world – evangelizing and bringing his love to all. This is, in fact, our Call to be Saints and what this conference is all about.

I would like to thank every one of you for attending today, and especially thank the dedicated men on the Catholic Men's Conference Planning Team and our Host Parish. Without their sweat and talents, this Conference could never happen. Take the time to thank them yourselves for their incredible efforts. Their work involves hundreds of hours outside these walls and a dedication that is truly something commendable and remarkable. Hopefully, you will see that reflected in the conference today.

Finally, I want every man in attendance to realize how much each of you makes a difference. You are meant to be here, and your identity as a man of faith is part of your mission to invite others from your parish or neighborhood to answer their own personal calling and deepen their relationship with Christ. Continue that Conversation.

Thank you for joining us today as a Man On Mission.
God Bless!

THE FIFTEEN PROMISES OF THE ROSARY

- Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall receive signal graces.
- I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
- The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
- The Rosary will cause virtue and good works to flourish; it will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God; it will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities and will lift them to the desire for eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
- The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall not perish.
- Whoever shall recite the Rosary devoutly, applying himself to the consideration of its sacred mysteries shall never be conquered by misfortune. God will not chastise him in His justice, he shall not perish by an unprovided death; if he be just, he shall remain in the grace of God, and become worthy of eternal life.
- Whoever shall have a true devotion for the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
- Those who are faithful to recite the Rosary shall have during their life and at their death the light of God and the plentitude of His graces; at the moment of death, they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.
- I shall deliver from Purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.
- The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in Heaven.
- You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary.
- All those who propagate the Holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.
- I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of death.
- All who recite the Rosary are my sons and daughters, and brothers and sisters of my only Son Jesus Christ.
- Devotion of my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

RELIC OF ST. IGNATIUS - MUSEUM OF CATHOLIC ART

This stunning reliquary containing the relic of St. Ignatius of Antioch was a gift to the museum from the Holy Land.

Saint Ignatius of Antioch

Born in Syria, Ignatius converted to Christianity and eventually became bishop of Antioch. He was a disciple of St. John the Apostle and St. Polycarp. In the year 107, Emperor Trajan visited Antioch and forced the Christians there to choose between death and apostasy. Ignatius would not deny Christ and thus was condemned to be put to death in Rome.

Ignatius bravely met the lions in the Circus Maximus.

The Letters

Ignatius is well known for the seven letters he wrote after his arrest, on the long journey from Antioch to Rome to face persecution. Five of these letters are to churches in Asia Minor; they urge the Christians there to remain faithful to God and to obey their superiors. He warns them against heretical doctrines, providing them with the solid truths of the Christian faith. A few of the topics included in his letters were the Real Prescence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, the hierarchy of the church and the Christian church called the Catholic church for the first time. He is quoted as saying, "Wherever the bishop appears, there let the people be: as wherever Jesus Christ is, there is the Catholic Church."

The sixth letter was to Polycarp, bishop of Smyrna, who was later martyred for the faith. The final letter begs the Christians in Rome not to try to stop his martyrdom. "The only thing I ask of you is to allow me to offer the libation of my blood to God. I am the wheat of the Lord; may I be ground by the teeth of the beasts to become the immaculate bread of Christ."

PROCESSIONAL HYMN: "The Church's One Foundation"

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord,
She is his new creation by water and the Word.
From heaven he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
With his own Blood he bought her and for her life he died.

Elect from every nation, yet one o'er all the earth;
Her charter of salvation, one Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy name she blesses, partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses, with every grace endued.

'Mid toil and tribulation, and tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation of peace forevermore.
Till, with the vision glorious, her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious shall be the Church at rest.

Yet she on earth has union with God the Three-In-One,
And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won,
O happy ones and holy! Lord give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly, on high may dwell with thee.

COMMUNION

COMMUNION HYMN: "Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All"

Jesus, my Lord, my God, my all,
How can I love thee as I ought?
And how revere this wondrous gift
So far surpassing hope or thought?

Had I but Mary's sinless heart
with which to love thee dearest King,
Oh, what with bursts of fervent praise,
Thy goodness, Jesus, would I sing.

Thy Body, Soul, and Godhead all;
O mystery of love divine;
I cannot compass all I have,
For all thou hast and art is mine.

Sound, then, his praises higher still,
And come, ye angels, to our aid,
For this is God, the very God
Who hath both men and angels made.

CHORUS:
Sweet Sacrament, we thee adore;
Oh, make us love thee more and more.
Oh, make us love thee more and more.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

FINAL BLESSING

DISMISSAL

RECESSIONAL HYMN:
"For All the Saints"

For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blessed.
Alleluia, alleluia!

Thou was their Rock, their Fortress and their Might;
Thou, Lord their Captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true Light.
Alleluia, alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia, alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
And singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia, alleluia!

Text: William Walsham How.
Music: SINE NOMINE, 10.10.10 with alleluias; Ralph Vaughan Williams

PERSONAL INVITATION TO GO ON MISSION

- Commit to the veneration of the Blessed Mother and the saints, especially those who exemplify Eucharistic living.
- Pursue ongoing formation in the faith, particularly in small group settings.
- Embrace the communal dimension of the Catholic life by deeper engagement in your parish and other Catholic institutions.
- Unite personal sufferings to the suffering of Christ to participate in His ongoing plan of redemption for the world.

- Become an ambassador of reconciliation and healing to others, extending the divine mercy you have received.
- Become a foot washer. Enter into Christ's act of self-oblation in the Eucharist, continuing His work in concrete practices of love for your neighbor.

THE EUCHARISTIC MISSION:

We are Called to be Saints

> "The Church which 'goes forth' is a community of missionary disciples who take the first step, who are involved and supportive, who bear fruit and rejoice. An evangelizing community knows that the Lord has taken the initiative, He has loved us first (1Jn 4:19), and therefore we can move forward, boldly taking the initiative, go out to others, seek those who have fallen away, stand at the crossroads and welcome the outcast."
> - Pope Francis

2025 Marks the Final Year of the Eucharistic Revival

PILLAR 1: EUCHARISTIC ENCOUNTER

PILLAR 2: EUCHARISTIC IDENTITY

PILLAR 3: EUCHARISTIC LIFE

PILLAR 2: EUCHARISTIC MISSION

...encouraging those who have encountered Jesus, who have entered into relationship with Him, and whose identity has been configured to Christ to go out on mission to the world, evangelizing and bringing His love to all, especially those in need of His mercy.

BEING MEN ON MISSION

Part of this final year of the Eucharistic Revival is an initiative called "Walk With One," which encourages men to think about a person you know whom you might invite back to the church.

Part of this mission includes drawing strength from the Source and Summit of our Faith

> "The Church draws her life from the Eucharist."
> — Pope St. John Paul II, "Ecclesia de Eucharistia"

Christ has shown us that He is ready to help and sustain us: all we must do is answer the call. Without going out on mission, Christ's love offered to us in the Eucharist cannot truly take hold of us.

Just as Christ strengthened and promised the Apostles, he promises us, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will as the Father, and He will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of Truth, which the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows it. But you know it, because it remains in you, and will be in you." (John 14: 15-17)

Pope St. Paul VI called the Holy Spirit "The principal agent of evangelization" (St. Paul VI, Evangeli Nuntiandi No. 75)

MISSION INVITATIONS TO ANSWER THE CALL

- Offer further opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, increasing the number of opportunities at different times during the week.
- Reach out and minister to the sick and suffering within your community, helping strengthen the bonds of the Mystical Body of Christ with those in greatest need.
- Dedicate yourself to a deeper prayer life, inviting Jesus to take a larger role in your life through a more personal relationship with Him.

"A man of faith on mission is one who wholeheartedly embraces God's call, venturing into the unknown with unwavering trust in divine guidance, ready to sacrifice for the greater purpose of sharing the Gospel, even when faced with challenges."

Thank You
FOR SUPPORTING THOSE WHO SUPPORT CATHOLIC MEN'S MINISTRY!

What are your top three missions in life?

How is God calling you personally to become a Terror of Demons on behalf of your family, the Church and society?

What 'weapon of man' do you hear God calling you to purge as he said to Peter, "Put your sword into its sheath."

What specific spiritual weapons will you deploy to crush the head of the serpent?

DEACON HAROLD BURKE-SIVERS

Scripture: Luke 24:30-32; 35

Ask yourself, "What are the obstacles in my life that prevent me from following Jesus?" Be honest.

What is holding you back from recognizing the power of Christ in your life?

Scripture: John 1:1, 14

Is the Word of God truly a priority in my life? Why not?

How will reading and engaging God's word daily transform my life?

How can you better back up your wife in her decisions regarding the children and grandchildren?

What is the best way for you to take a spiritual lead in your family?
