

She went back to school to get her Masters in Historic Preservation, at Eastern Michigan University, which lead her to work with and establish the Jewish Community Archives. Her involvement with Beth Shalom as President in the 1990s along with activities of the Saturday Luncheon Club for decades have provided her with amazing community stories to share. A regular at Congregation Shaarey Zedek at services and as a Meals on Wheels volunteer, along with many other activities in the community including chairing committees at Jewish Senior Life, for the annual Bessie Spector's Oldest Jewish American's Celebration. It is no wonder that Sharon was hand-picked by the late Hon. Avern Cohn as Howard Lupovitch' research partner on the next volume of Jewish Detroit's History. We are delighted to honor her this year.
