

Val Mack

Managing Director in the Strategic Communications segment of
FTI Consulting
New York, New York

Ms. Mack, a leader in the M&A, Activism and Governance practice of FTI Consulting, advises companies on how to prepare for and approach shareholder activists, increasingly vocal institutional investors, ESG funds, and politically driven activists. She advises with a keen eye for creating opportunities and managing risk.

Before joining FTI Consulting, Ms. Mack worked for Elliott Management on communications and public affairs as the hedge fund grew assets under management (“AUM”) from approximately $35 billion to approximately $50 billion and built the firm’s private equity arm. Her role encompassed communications around specific investments, regulatory issues, media prep for executives, reputation management and quarterly investor communications. As Elliott’s private equity portfolio grew, Ms. Mack worked with portfolio companies as they needed to execute communications in critical moments.

Ms. Mack spent a decade in U.S. politics as a communications advisor and opposition researcher working on elections in more than 30 states and worked on two presidential primary campaigns. She also worked in the U.S. Senate and in the Massachusetts State House.

Ms. Mack holds a B.A. in communication studies, cum laude, from Northeastern University.
