

June Haskell Bio

June Haskell is an expert with lived experience and brings vital insight to the discussion of the dynamics of human trafficking. She is certified in trauma-informed, person-centered practices. She also works alongside survivors to empower and support them in their healing journey.

She has been speaking for over ten years to bring education and awareness throughout the world, including most recently at the National Alliance for Drug Endangered Children Annual Conference. She has also been a member of the O.U.R. Survivor Advisory Board since 2021 and was recently appointed to serve as Board Chair.

Although her main focus is on human trafficking, her expertise also includes family dysfunction, domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse.

June has lived in Australia, New Zealand, and many other places, but calls Utah home. She continues to be an advocate for victims and survivors of sex trafficking and a voice for those who are unable to use their own.

She is a wife, mother and mother and enjoys quality time with her family.
