

In 2022, National Alliance for Drug Endangered Children trained nearly 3,000 individuals.

Participants consistently reported an increase of knowledge gained.

2 Train-the-Trainers conducted bringing the total number of certified trainers nationwide to 226.

Over 500 attendees participated in the quarterly All Hands on DEC Calls.

The Promising Practices Guide for Helping Drug Endangered Children was updated and released.

Here's what participants are saying about our trainings:

- Oh wow soooo good!!! I learned a lot!! Took 2 pages of notes!! I love the quote, knowledge doesn't always equal behavior change. I can't wait to make a change!!
- This was incredible.
- Fantastic training! Would attend again.
- Very enlightening and a great presentation.
