TOUCHSTONES

Rev. Dr. Natalie Fenimore

About now, a couple of weeks into the New Year, many of us are already upset because we have broken our New Year's resolutions. Remember that our faith asks us to be kind and compassionate to others and also to ourselves—so give yourself a break.

Despite what might be a time for rest, reflection, and recovery in the winter months, we are prompted to be very busy from the end of November through now. So maybe it's a bad time for you to make resolutions or to gather the resources for resistance to oppression and helplessness.

Consider picking your own New Year's Day. Our January 1 New Year is really just one option. Not all cultures choose that day for their new beginnings. In many Asian cultures, the Lunar New Year is in January or February, in Judaism, the New Year is in the fall with the harvest, the Persian New Year (Nowruz) is in the Spring.

Determine when you might be best able to make and keep resolutions for self-care, to work for justice and peace, to spend more time with family and friends, to love your neighbor as yourself—to resolve to resist all that keeps us from building the Beloved Community we seek.

This year, build a spiritual calendar that connects you to your needs, desires, and the calling of your heart.

CARING at UUCSR

Do you know about the UUCSR Caring Committee? Volunteers from UUCSR assist the ministers in attending to members in need. This group of wonderful people sends cards and gifts to show the congregation's concern and care. They send flowers and plants—and Legos and puzzles and craft kits. They quilt and sew gifts. They cook food for those who are hungry or sick. They visit the homebound and those in hospitals and rehabilitation centers. These caring services are available to those of all ages in the congregation. I am so grateful for the extra hands and eyes that they provide. They—and the ministers—are never too busy to hear

MUSIC AT SHELTER ROCK

Stephen Michael Smith, Music Director

Alphonso Horne Selected To Lead UUCSR Jazz Ensemble

We are thrilled to announce the selection of Alphonso Horne to lead the UUCSR Jazz Ensemble. Alphonso and the Gotham Kings have been featured twice in our Jazz in the Afternoon Concert Series here at Shelter Rock, and he has an impressive résumé and rich background as a performer and educator. Having Alphonso as an important member of our musical team at Shelter Rock affords an opportunity to learn from and work alongside a leader in the jazz world.

From his website: Alphonso Horne is one of the most sought-after musicians today. Known for his high level of musicianship, Horne has performed with some of the leading musicians in jazz including, touring with Wynton Marsalis and Jazz at Lincoln Center (2013), performing on the PBS Special: Lady Gaga and Tony Bennett (2014), playing in the house band of the Late Show with Jon Batiste, and playing on Grammy nominated albums (Jamison, 2015; My Favorite Things, 2015). Horne was also featured in the 2019 film Bolden, playing a cameo role.

In 2010, Horne received his BM at Florida State University. Immediately after graduating from FSU, he was a member of the Disney All-American College Band before he attended Juilliard for his master's in jazz (MM '13). In that same year, Wynton Marsalis would include him in a list of sixteen young jazz musicians entitled, "Wynton's Picks: Who's Got Next."

While at Juilliard, Horne began performing in various musical productions, both on Broadway and off. In 2013, he was a part of the Tony Award-winning Broadway production, After Midnight (2013) with world-class cast members such as Fantasia Barrino, Dulé Hill, and Patti LaBelle. He was also a member of the orchestra for Tony-nominated Shuffle Along (2016) with another great cast, including Savion Glover and Rhiannon Giddens (who he would later begin touring with in 2017). Horne's talents were also seen outside of being an orchestra member as he was the Music Director for Ziegfeld's Midnight Frolic (2015), and Assistant Director for The Last Time Musical (2015).

Horne leads an active career as a sideman. He has been a part of many projects including, the Cab Calloway Band (2014), touring with Allen Stone (2015), playing on Jamison Ross' (Jamison, 2015), and Joey Alexander's (My Favorite Things, 2015), Grammy Nominated albums, performing with the Count Basie Orchestra (2016), began touring with Rhiannon Giddens (2017), and most recently with Rihanna at the Video Music Awards show in 2017. Horne also was the producer for Nancy Harrow's album, The Song is All (2016).

An active performing career has given Horne the opportunity to perform at many world-class venues and jazz festivals around the world including Madison Square Garden (VMA Awards 2017), Umbria, Monterey, Newport, Montreal, Vancouver, London, and many more.

Currently Horne is involved with many projects including the annual Savannah Swing Central and Music Festival, where he commissioned an arrangement for the 2018 season, playing with Sammy Miller and the Congregation, who just finished a residency at Ars Nova (2017). As a leader, he is the band leader of an early jazz band: Gotham Kings. Gotham Kings performs regularly at Jazz at Lincoln Center, and Ginny's Supper Club in Harlem, NY. He is currently producing his original show, "Mother Kofi: The Tale of an African Princess."

His most recent appearance on Broadway was the acclaimed sound of Louis Armstrong's trumpet in It's a Wonderful World.

WELCOME, ALPHONSO!

Science Discussion Network

Topic: The National Skills Crisis—Math Fear/Avoidance
Sunday, February 15, 2026 | 1:00 PM | Onsite in the Office
Conference Room and Online via Zoom

Who Are We?

We are members and friends of Shelter Rock who enjoy talking about science, math, engineering, and AI. In our monthly Science Discussion Network sessions, we open new worlds to each other, exploring the spirit, history, and future of science and math.

Under the sponsorship of the Men's Group, we began the Science Discussion Network in October. Planners of the group include Herb and Carol Klitzner, Jean Smith, Ken Jordan, Larry Hass, Vince Chimienti, Rick Shaper, Bob Penaskovic, Gerry Matusiewicz, and others.

Our Monthly Discussions

Many Shelter Rock members have deep backgrounds in science, and we draw on both these Shelter Rock scientists and interested non-scientists to present ideas from their areas of interest and expertise. Together, we explore timely and thought-provoking topics through open, lively conversation. Topics include the promise and challenges of AI, how people of faith can embrace science, the role of science in helping people understand and manage medical concerns, and the contributions of UU scientists.

Our Aspirations

Our goal is to create a welcoming environment where science-oriented individuals and curious non-scientists can connect, explore ideas, and gain insight into important scientific issues and their impact on society. We are a thoroughly egalitarian group. We welcome all! We also plan to form small interest groups that allow participants to explore specific topics more deeply and, where appropriate, collaborate on projects that could even spark ideas for other organizations to expand and carry forward.

Getting Involved

Remember, you don't have to be a rocket scientist, as long as you are interested in learning and sharing. Come prepared to be welcomed, appreciated, and included.

Survey: Adult Bible Classes for UUs with Student Minister Bryan Bower

John Buehrens, former UUA President and author of Universalists and Unitarians in America: A People's History, writes in his book Understanding the Bible, a list of reasons for all "skeptics, seekers, and religious liberals" to study the Bible: "The first motivation could be called political: If you can't or won't understand the Bible, others surely will interpret it for you. The second could be called cultural or literary: Within this culture you can't be fully literate or creative, artistically or rhetorically, without an acquaintance with the Bible. But now we come to the third and most personal reason: You can't be spiritually mature or wise by simply rejecting the Bible as oppressive. The oppressive uses of the Bible are real, but unless you learn to understand that there are other readings possible, the Bible will, indeed, simply continue to be a source of oppression for you, and not a source of inspiration, liberation, creation, and even exultation as you understand it anew for yourself, at a deeper and less literal level."

These are many of the reasons that compelled UUCSR's Student Minister Bryan Bower to go to seminary. Buehrens writes that "not all of us, however, can or should go to seminary to begin to take back our right to read and interpret the Bible for ourselves," saying you can begin with a basic book such as his. However, since Bryan is already in seminary, he decided to offer at least one Adult Bible Class at UUCSR in Spring 2026.

Please take the survey linked HERE to indicate which Bible topics interest you!

Chamber Music at Shelter Rock—A New Concert Series to Inaugurate UUCSR's "New" Steinway Grand Piano

This fall heralded the arrival of a new (for us) Steinway Grand Piano to replace the former Worship Room piano which had served us well for several decades but was showing serious signs of wear. When Stephen Michael Smith asked Nathaniel LaNasa, UUCSR's resident keyboard artist, how he thought we should inaugurate the new piano's arrival and introduce it to the congregation and the community he didn't hesitate: "How about a chamber music series?!" Nathaniel has graciously programmed a series of chamber music concerts to do just that.

Here's Nathaniel telling you about it, in his own words: Offering piano music for worship is a unique joy. Searching out music that inspires the reverence, joy, or contemplation each service demands brings me into community with composers from generations stretching from the Renaissance to the present moment. I get to swim in the oceans of music that exhaustively catalogue our human emotions, as fresh today as when it was written; I get to dance in the rain of new tunes being written every day. Best of all, I get to share music weekly with soulful listeners.

Recently, this joy trebled with the arrival of our new piano, an exquisite Steinway model D, handcrafted in Hamburg, Germany, in 2012. Each piano has its own personality, its own way of dancing with the way you play it. As Stephen and I went looking at pianos, I was moved, again and again, by the devotion and precision of the artisans behind each instrument. A handmade instrument palpably carries the life energy of its builders. We played a lot of fantastic pianos, but the moment I played "our" new piano, I knew it had chosen us. It wasn't just the extraordinary richness or the clarity of the tone; there was an even more magical quality: it's as if the piano knows what I imagine before I do—as if the piano is alive and playfully clairvoyant! Surely this special instrument will inspire many years of musical adventures at Shelter Rock.

I am honored that UUCSR has invited me to dream up some concerts to celebrate our new piano. I have chosen to begin by visiting the life and times of Amy Marcy Cheney Beach, the first American woman to gain acceptance as a composer of music on a grand scale. She was the most widely performed composer of her generation, and her music pulses with vitality and passion. Amy Beach was also a first-rate concert pianist, performing all over this country and touring Europe; and she was a fierce supporter and advocate of other women composers. Her artistry and her legacy are equally worthy of celebration.

Our inaugural concert on our new piano is Sunday, February 8, at 1:30 in the Worship Room. I hope you'll join me, our own Sarah Moulton Faux, and our orchestra's concertmaster Stani Dimitrova on February 8 to hear Beach's landmark Quintet for piano and strings, a selection of her songs for voice and piano, and piano pieces by Beach and composers in her circles. And I hope you'll save the date for our next musical adventure on Sunday, June 21!

Fraudulent Emails and Phishing Scams: Don't Take the Bait!

Recent email scams have targeted the Shelter Rock community purportedly from the Shelter Rock's ministers, staff, or even members, requesting a pdf copy of the membership database. Please note that UUCSR ministers, staff, and UUCSR members will NEVER ask for a pdf of the membership database. The database is secure and these emails should be reported to a staff member if you receive one. Please also be reminded about the "phishing" emails purportedly from the Shelter Rock's ministers that are sent from fake, non-UUCSR addresses. UUCSR ministers and staff members will NOT send you emails using any other email address other than uucsr.org.

Often, a recipient of a phishing email is advised to call their known contact to verify an email. Most recently, phishing emails have instructed recipients NOT to call, causing confusion about safe behavior.

THE SAFEST ACTION IS NO ACTION; DO NOT CLICK OR RESPOND IN ANY WAY.

Rest assured: Shelter Rock's technology has state-of-the-art security, and no breach has been detected.

YOUTH AND ADULT FAITH ENGAGEMENT INTRODUCES THIRD FRIDAYS

LIVING A PUBLIC LIFE

With Rev. David Carl Olson

Third Friday of Each Month***

6:30–9:00 PM | Social Hall & Art Gallery

*January 23 (Fourth Friday), February 20, March 20

In social media posts, in newspaper columns and in TED talks—and even in pastoral conversations with ministers—people are sharing a deep sense of isolation and loneliness. This experience contradicts an article of our faith, that we are people of interdependence, and live lives of profound interconnection.

“Living a Public Life” will be a monthly series of workshops on building our interdependence to live our values in the public sphere. We will learn to do one-to-one relational meetings, will talk about the diverse cultures we inhabit, and discern the difference between the private lives of our families and the public life of a congregation like Shelter Rock. Come join us! Please register here so we ensure we have enough food.

MIDNIGHT RUN

5:30–9:30 PM – Dinner & Prep/Social Hall
10:00 PM–1:00 AM – Run/Manhattan

Every year, the Senior Seminar youth try to work on different service projects, but one nonprofit that is a constant is Midnight Run. Midnight Run is a volunteer-based organization with a mission to bridge the gap between the housed and those experiencing homelessness. Midnight Run coordinates more than 1,000 missions per year for volunteers from churches, synagogues, schools, and other philanthropic groups to distribute food, clothing, blankets, and personal care items to those who are impoverished and/or experiencing homelessness on the streets of New York City.

We are asking for donations, volunteers to prepare food, sort clothing, and compile toiletry kits, and volunteers who would like to drive Senior Seminar teens and our young adults as they embark on a journey of kindness and giving to a community in need that is close to home.

Donations Collected in the Main Lobby

Join us in the Social Hall on Friday, January 30, as we prepare food, sort clothing, and compile toiletry kits for those in need. This is an all-ages volunteer event.

Register at uucsr.org/26Run

Please feel free to sign up for multiple volunteer roles if you would like! You can prep, and be a driver or runner as well!

UUCSR Adult Programs Committee Presents

Living Our UU Faith: Deep Listening, Deep Questions

FEB 15, MAR 1 & 29, APR 26, MAY 17 & 31 | 1:00–2:45 PM

REV. MEAGAN HENRY

Associate Minister at UUCSR

What do words like “God,” “prayer,” & “reverence” mean to you as a Unitarian Universalist?

Join us for an intimate six-session exploration of theological concepts that shape our faith tradition—from atonement and blessing to transformation and spiritual practice. Through deep listening and meaningful conversation, we’ll examine how these often-charged terms can find authentic expression within our UU Values and personal spiritual journeys.

No theological expertise required—just curiosity and a willingness to explore alongside fellow seekers. Whether these concepts feel like old friends or unfamiliar territory, you’ll find space here to question, wonder, and discover what resonates with your own beliefs.

Limited to 12 participants to foster trust and genuine connection. Registration required. If we fill, we’ll create a waiting list and offer the program again. Participants encouraged to attend all sessions. Ready to go deeper?
