IF YOU NEED HELP NOW
START HERE

1 Identify what is happening

- Do you need help with rent?
- Did you receive an eviction notice?
- Are you having problems with repairs or maintenance?
- Do you need to talk with someone about your options?

2 Gather your information

- Notices, letters, or documents related to your housing.
- Messages, emails, and records of communication.
- Important dates, names, and phone numbers.

3 Ask for help

- Call a resource listed in this guide.
- If no one answers, leave your name, phone number, and a message.
- Dial 211 to find other resources based on your needs.

Dial 211 to connect with a specialist and receive personalized assistance.

Free and confidential,
24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

WHAT IS YOUR SITUATION?

I need help with rent

- Start by calling 211 for resources and referrals.
- Ask about local homelessness prevention or assistance programs.

I received an eviction notice

- Stay calm and review the notice.
- Identify the reason stated in the notice.
- Seek guidance from legal services or the California Courts Self-Help Guide.
- https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov

I have a problem with my landlord (Your landlord is the person who rents the home to you.)

- Keep a record of what happens.
- Whenever possible, communicate in writing: by email, text message, or letter.
- Keep copies of messages, notices, and documents.

ORGANIZE YOUR DOCUMENTS

Keep your information organized.

KEEP A RECORD
Useful documents to keep

- Your rental agreement and related documents.
- Notices you receive.
- Receipts or proof of payment.
- Messages and emails.
- Photos of housing problems, if applicable.

If a document is difficult to understand

- Ask for a clear explanation before signing.
- Seek help to understand the contents.
- Bring the document when you speak with a support organization.

Tip: Keep all your printed documents in a folder, or take a photo of each page and save the photos on your phone or computer.
