

BEFORE YOU LEAVE CAMPUS, we encourage you to take a family photo to celebrate this important milestone. Take a photo in your student's room, in front of their residence halls, at a campus landmark, or at the temporary installations designed especially for Tulane's Hullabaloo Hello. Share your photo mementos with the whole Tulane family by posting to social media using #TULANE2028.

- ▶ TULANE UNIVERSITY SIGN in front of Gibson Hall on the St. Charles Avenue side
- ▶ TULANE BEAD 3 SCULPTURE on Gibson Quad
- ▶ TU SHIELD BEAD ART in the Pederson Lobby, 1st floor, Lavin-Bernick Center
- ▶ STREETCAR SCULPTURE outside the Pederson Lobby, 1st floor, Lavin-Bernick Center
- ▶ HULLABALOO CHEER BANNER on the Lavin-Bernick Center, Berger Family Lawn Side
- ▶ HULLABALOO HELLO and TU SPLASH CARD PHOTO PROPS under the inflatable arch on McAlister Way
- ▶ "WELCOME TO TULANE" BANNER across McAlister Place in front of McAlister Auditorium
- ▶ "WELCOME TULANIANS" LBC WINDOWS facing McAlister Way and Pocket Park
- ▶ *NEW ORLEANS CULTURE HOUSE FLOAT INSTALLATIONS
  - Crawfish boil-themed house float at Cudd Hall
  - Jazz music-themed house float at Mussafer Hall
  - Tulane diorama outside McAlister Auditorium
  - Streetcar installation on the Berger Family Lawn across from McAlister Auditorium
  - Hullabaloo Hello-themed arch at the LBC Pedersen Lobby entrance on McAlister Way

**These immersive experience installations were designed by Stronghold Studios, known for their creative Mardi Gras floats.*