*Unconscious Bias: Knowing
What You Don't Know*

Derek Mosley, Director of the Lubar Center at Marquette University Law School, is a nationally recognized speaker on unconscious bias and Black history. A former Milwaukee Assistant District Attorney and the youngest African American judge appointed in Wisconsin, he has spent his career advancing justice, civic education, and community engagement. Widely honored for his leadership and service, Judge Mosley brings a dynamic, insightful, and inspiring perspective to every audience.
