

Sherlock enjoys the winter.

A couple of weeks ago, Sherlock was spotted relaxing after a great afternoon of snow tubing at the Mohawk Mountain Ski Area in Cornwall. As the sun began to set, he indulged in a satisfying cup of hot chocolate. Yum!

Last weekend, Sherlock went sledding with Paul at Valley Regional High School in Deep River. He certainly doesn't mind the wintry conditions, although sometimes the cold can cause Sherlock to get a bit stiff. While the rides down the hill were great fun, he complained about walking back up the hill. Paul refused to carry him or pull him up in the sled. Weighing in at 1.6 lbs, Sherlock is just too heavy.
