2021 Spirit of Youth Award Nomination

Each year, the Spirit of Youth Award is given by the Coalition for Juvenile Justice (CJJ) to recognize and celebrate a young adult who overcame personal obstacles in his/her life, but is now making significant contributions to society.

This award provides CJJ and the public with an important opportunity to learn from a young person’s first-hand life experiences such as how juvenile justice professionals and systems can most effectively be of help. Important questions are raised: What worked? What could have been done better? What enabled this young person to overcome obstacles and make such big changes in his or her life?

The award recipient must be:

• 28 years old or younger
• A person who was formally involved in the juvenile justice system
• Currently involved, directly or indirectly, in bettering the lives of youth

Past recipients include:
