

FAFSA CHECKLIST: Have These Documents On-Hand When Attempting to Complete Your 2019-2020 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)

Having the following information and forms on-hand will help you fill out the 2019-2020 FAFSA:

- Social Security Number for the student (and parents or spouse, if applicable)
- Student's Driver's License Number
- W-2 Forms from two years prior (2017) and other records of any money earned for the student (and parents or spouse, if applicable)
- Student's (and/or your parents') Federal Income Tax Return from two years prior (2017) – IRS Form 1040, 1040A, 1040EZ, foreign tax return, or tax return from Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the U.S. Virgin Islands, the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia
- Any untaxed income records for two years prior (2017) – e.g. payments to tax deferred pension and savings plans, tax exempt interest and child support received for all children in the household in 2017
- Records of taxable earnings from Federal Work-Study or other need based work programs in 2017
- Records of any grants, scholarships, and fellowship aid that was included in your or your parents' 2017 adjusted gross income (AGI)
- Any current bank statements
- Any current business and investment mortgage information, business and farm records, stock, bonds and other investment records
- Documentation that the student is a U.S. permanent resident or other eligible noncitizen, if applicable

If you have any questions about the application, please contact the financial aid office at the college the student currently attends or wishes to attend. They can assist you in finding free help to complete the FAFSA – please don't hesitate to contact them!
