

ART IN PUBLIC PLACES PUBLIC ART OPPORTUNITY CALL FOR MURALIST

LANDOVER HILLS | PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY, MD

REQUEST FOR SUBMISSIONS PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY, MD

GENERAL PROJECT INFORMATION

Prince George's Arts and Humanities Council in collaboration with Prince George's County Office of Stakeholder Engagement and Affairs and Prince George's County Public Schools is seeking a mural artist or team of artists from the Washington Metro Area to design, fabricate, and install a permanent mural at Cooper Lane Elementary School, located at 3817 Cooper Lane, Landover Hills. The mural is part of the County Executive's efforts of beautification, whose goal is to exchange representative stories from community members and to facilitate community-building through hands-on projects.

The Prince George's County Beautification Initiative is a three-year effort from the County Executive's Office to promote pride throughout the County and encourage residents, visitors, and businesses to protect and preserve the environment.

DESIGN VALUES

- Create a mural for an outdoor school environment that reflects and celebrates the community with themes of cultural vibrancy, equity, and diversity
- Bring diverse communities together through the storytelling of Prince George’s Proud stories (developed during community workshops)
- Provide a welcoming landscape to all

ROLE OF ARTIST(S)

- Collaborate with PGAHC, the Office of Stakeholder Engagement and Affairs Committee, and community stakeholders on design
- Artwork Fabrication and Installation: The artist(s) will ensure all technical applications to fabricate and install the final artwork design

ARTIST ELIGIBILITY

- The opportunity is open to all artists age 18+
- Must have completed 2-3 murals of similar size in the past 3 years
- Artists from Prince George’s County and the DC metropolitan area are strongly encouraged to apply

BUDGET $10,000

- Project budget includes design fees, materials, cost of installation, and travel/lodging

SELECTION PROCESS & CRITERIA

Prince George’s County Arts and Humanities public art staff, Office of Stakeholder Engagement, PGCPs and community stakeholders will review applicants’ submitted materials, have an opportunity to ask clarifying questions about applicants’ initial ideas and approaches to the project in broad conceptual terms, and develop a ranked list of qualified candidates who will be invited for interviews.

Upon approval, the selected artists or artist teams will be issued a contract. Prince George’s Arts and Humanities Council will oversee contract issuance and overall project management.
